Considered the Sweet Music.

Chairman Clark arrived at ten minutes after ten and was received with a few mandrags. Twenty minutes after the delegates were in their seats no word had been received from the Resolutions Committee, and the chairman dispatched a messenger to learn when it would be ready to report. Private advices were to ready to report. Private advices were to ready to report. Private advices were to the effect that it would be several hours before the report would be prepared, and the prospects for a short session grew stronger. One of the secretaries called through a megaphone: "The band will please play 'Home, Sweet Home." There was a wild cheer from the weary perspiring delegates and spectators as the familiar strain floated out on the air. Anying with the word "home" seemed grieful, for the cheers were repeated a few minutes later when "My Old, Kentelled forth the inevitable lyells, and the Texas delegation added to the enthusiasm by unfurling their lone star flag and waving it wildly.

Temporary Chairman Williams soon came down the ailse, chewing leisurely at that over present cigar, and was greeted with cheers.

The band was required through the megaphone to play "On the Banks of the Wabash." and the Indiana delegation showed its appreciation by climbing on chairs and cheering justify.

The Gavel Falls. Considered the Sweet Music.

The Gavel Falls.

The messenger which Chairman Clark had sent to the Committee on Resolutions returned with a gleomy report of the readiness of that committee to appear with its important document, and the waiting continued. At 19:48 Chairman Clark arose and let fall his bugg gayot. The convention will be in order. The demanded. The clork then pleked up the megaphone and announced that the session would begin with prayer by Rabis Samuel Sale, of St. Louis. The delegates and spectators at once arose to their feeling steps had been seen to their feeling steps had during the invocation. There was no trouble in securing order, for their delegates and they seemed anxious for action. Rabbi Sale's prayer follows:

"Oh, mereful and securing order, for their delegates and they seemed anxious for action. Rabbi Sale's prayer follows:

"Oh, mereful any presence in this vast assembly of Thy people, and humbly we ask. Thy guidance in the councils of the leders of Thy people. Thou rulest in the destinies of matters and the security of the people. They work the security of the people. They work they are devoted to the cause of the just, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the self-based of the cause of the just, the ments of Thy work presence of the pust, the self-based of the cause of the pust, the self-based of the cause of the pust, the self-based of the pust of the cause of the pust of the self-based of the pust of the cause of the pust of the self-based of the pust of the self-based of the pust of the pust of the pust of the self-based of the pust of the pu

Trying to be Busy.

Trying to be Busy.

A demand was made for the report of the Resolutions Committee. As no resonse was forthcoming it was determined to call the roll of States for the purpose of having the names of the next National Committee announced. There were heers at the announcement of the name (Robert D. Stillvan as committeeman (Robert D. Stillvan as committeeman (Illinois, but the demonstration assumed larger proportions at the mention of Thomas Tuggart, of Indiana, which illowed, Man'n other names were cheer as the call projected. The Pennsylval as the call projected. The Pennsylval as the call projected. The remained committeeman.

A call for the committee to meet at the efforce the committee to meet at the efforce of the committee of the words "sign or die" is convention took occasion to laugh. Another call was made for the Committee on Resolutions. Representative ille James, of Kentucky, moved that a ommittee of three be appointed by the Another call was made for the Committee on Resolutions. Representative Oille James, of Kentucky, moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to wait on the committee and ascertain when it would be ready to report. This motion received a second and was carried without delay, Chairman Clark named Mr. James, H. D. Clayton, of Alabama, and T. H. Bull, of Texas, the committee.

bama, and T. H. Ball, of Texas, the committee.

Delegate J. C. Sheppard, of South Carolina, created a wild shout by declaring that the convention wanted to hear Bourke Cockran speak. After quiet had been restored it was stated that Mr. Cockran was not in the hall. A demand for C. A. Towne, "the silver tongued orator," was made, but Mr. Towne declined to respond.

In the anxiety to learn when the Committee on Resolutions would be ready to report the list of National Committemen had not been confirmed, and the oversight was remedied by a wind the oversight was remedied by a motion, which was carried by a viva voce vote, and the procedure straightened out.

"The clerk will call the roll," said the challens, "for the list of honorary vice-presidents," and the calling of the roll, designed more for the purpose of keeping the convention quiet by giving it something to which it could listen, proceeded with much deliberation.

Hobson Makes Speech.

Hobson Makes Speech.

When the roll call was finished Chairman Clark, who was displaying decided ability in keeping up the interest of the convention during the tedious walt for word of some kind from the Committee on Resolutions, called on the band to play "America" and asked the delegates and spectators to sing at the same time. His wishes were carried out, the entire convention rising and singing two stanzas of the song.

wishes were carried out, the chure convention rising and singing two stanzas of the song.

A motion was made and carried that Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, he invited to address the convention, Mr. Hobson accepted the invitation, and in a few moments made his way from the Alabama delegation to the platform. He was greeted with a lond round of applance and the usual cries of "louder." He compiled promptly with the request and revealed the heat and strongest voice thus far heard in the convention.

"What President he asked "has been brave enough to enforce the law against the labor-union violator of law? It was a Democratic President," and applicate greeted the assertion. He passed to the color question and declared that if when the black or yellow race come into con-

C. & O. Excursion Trains SUNDAY. Leave Richmond 8:30, and 9 A. M. $1 round trip to Norfolk and the seaside.

BUCKROE BEACH, WHERE THE 11.00 round trip, via C & O, every Sun-day. Take a trip to Slam, the latest | seaside amusement,

A SUDDEN DROP IN PRICES!

Fine, seasonable suits at irresistible figures.

Here's the centre of attraction $18.00 AND $20.00 SUITS

ed for a big run at $12.50 FOR CHOICE.

Come early.

tact with white people, that race would not commit suicide, it must ramain absolutely distinct. A shout from the Southern delegates greeted the statement. He declared that Booker T. Washington would soon outlive his undoubted usefulness if he did not cease to yield to the teachings and influences of the Republican party and its chieftain. He urged the men of the West and North to refrain from oppressing the South by advocating anything that tended to obliterate the racked lines. He deprecuted the fact that in the Republican convention not one man and risen to speak against the plank in that party's platform which urged reduction of Southern representation in Congress because of alleged disfranchisement of the speaker worked himself into a high pitch of excitement, as with white face in the speaker worked himself into a high pitch of excitement, as with white face in the speaker worked himself into a high pitch of excitement, as with white face in the speaker worked himself into a high pitch of excitement, as with white face in the speaker worked and the words: "Let us make the Republicans name the battle field, and let us make them call it 'Waiterloo.'"

The speaker finished and the band following him close up played "The Star Snangled Banger" and thon swung into "Dixle" which received more than the usual tribute, because of the speech of Mr. Hobson, which had dwelt with conditions in the South. In his efforts to secure order. Charman Clark broke his gavel handle short off.

Convention Takes Recess.

Convention Takes Recess.

The committee, headed by Representative Oilie James, which had been dispatched to the rooms of the Resolutions committee, presented itself, and M. James was introduced amid great applance. His announcement was:

"Your committee appointed to walt on the Resolutions Committee have discharged that duty. That committee informs that they will be unable to report to this convention until 8 o'clock to-night, at which time they will bring to you a sired effect, although it was several mustures before the convention composed ittels and warning had to be given by the conding cierk that quiet must be proserved. Cries of "londer" were repeatedly made as Senator Daniel proceeded, for his voice seemed inadequate to fill the hall. A great hum, of conversation and an all-pervading noise of shuffling feet, moving bodies and scraping chairs, iningled to drown the Virginian's voice. Powerful as it is he could not be heard ten rows of seats from the stand on which he stood.

An Ohio delegate, after repeatedly addressing the chairman in a loud manner, domanded order.

"All-right; sit down and keep still, and we will have order," retorted Mr. Clark.
Then turning to the clerk, he directed again that the aisles be cleared. Senator Daniel's exhaustion from his long session with the Resolutions Committee was apparent. To the vast andlence which faced him he was but, a slent figure with moving lips.

Ten minutes went by with the same disorder, the reading of the platform not being heard, when another interruption was made at the instance of Chairman Clark, who attempted, but lifeffectually, to maintain order. Disturbances resulting from cries for order from yarlous portions of the hall exhausted the patience of the chairman, and he gave personal directions to have several person guited or put out. Senator Daniel refused to be disturbed. He proceeded with the reading of the platform regardless of the fact that not one soul in the hall, except perhaps the stenographer, who stood at the steps just beneath him, heard a word.

Senator Daniel concluded at $55 o'clock. When it was observed that he had ceased reading, the convention broke into cheers.

The Platform Adopted.

Senator Daniel said: "I am ununimously instructed by your Committee on Plat-

The Platform Adopted.

Senator Daniel said: "I am unanimously instructed by your Committee on Platform to move the previous question on its adoption, and I now make that motion." It was adopted by a viva-voce vote, two or three delegates voting in the negative, apparently in a spirit of fun. Chairman Clark then put the motion to adopt the report, and another viva-voce vote enried it.

PRESENTS PARKER'S NAME Littleton Makes Great Speech and Causes Wild Demonstration.

and Causes Wild Demonstration.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 8.—Tennorary
Chairman Williams mounte the steps leading up to the platform, swung his leat around his head, and the delegates, following his lead, froared their applause again and again, while the band played,
"Hall, Columbia,"
"The clerk will now call the foll of States for the nomination of a caudidate for President," shouted the chairham.

A wild cry of delight came from the calleries who seemed to think the whole thing a show run for their Estertain-

"Alabama, yields to the English ere dur-"Alabama, yields to the Empire State of New York," called Delegish Russell, of Alabama, standing on his chair, one arm grasping the standard, of his State marker.

F. M. SIMMONS AND SENATOR L. O. OVERMAN, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

went up.

Air. James followed his last announcement at once with a motion to adjourn until 8 o'clock to-night. A second was at once heard and the motion carried, the session closing at 11:58 A. M.

THE PLATFORM ADOPTED. No Debate Over Instrument;

Read by Senator Daniel.

Read by Schatch Dankel,

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOHIS, July 8.—The crush of visitors around the doors and inside the convention hall at 8 o'clock, the time set for the opening of the convention was greated than at any pravious session. It was something rarely paralleled at any National Convention. Extras had spread something rarely paralleled at any Na-tonial Convention. Extras had spread the news over the town that a nomina-tion was to be expected to-night and the clowd overflowed the piace. At two or three entrances the pressure on the dor-keepers and policemen was so great the the lines were broken and many persons without tickets forced their way into the half.

without tickets forced their way into the hall.

A genuine reception was given to Sentor Hill. of New York, who made his first appearance in the hall. General Nelson A. Miles was also present for the first time. At 8 o'clock there was not a vacant seat in the vast audicuriua. From platform to topmost gallery, it was packed with delegates, alternates and spectators. The heat was intense. The treets on the four sides of the Collscuri were impassable. By the time the chairman called the convention to order the hall was faled to the danger line and leyond. A series of energotic thumps on the presiding officer's table were given by Chairman Clark at $103 o'clock in an endeavor to call the convention to order. As Mr. Clark shood at the desk, Sentator Daniel, of Virginia, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, made way to his side with a copy of the platform in his hand. Without delay it was announced that the report of the committee would be received.

At this statement the convention seized the opportunity to vent its satisfaction at the manimous report to be made. A

At this statement the convention seized the opportunity to vent its satisfaction at the unanimous report to be made. A rreat cry went up. Many delegates jumped to their feet, and the first 6c-monstration of the night session occurred. Becoming impatient at the delay, & mater Daniel began his announcement in the midst of the uproat.

"I am instructed to make to this convention," he began, "this unanimous epert from the Committee on Resolutions."

Daniel Reads; Nobody Hears. The senator's persistence had the de-unanimous report, signed by every member of the committee."

Great applicate and cheers greeted this last statement, and as soon as Mr. James could be heard again be continued:
"New York, Nebraska, Virginia and Wisconsin have all Joined hands, and will bring in a platform that will carry us to a glorious victory in November."

Again the convention voiced its pleasure at the news, and a mighty shout went up. Relmond P. Hobson, He said:

ing quality and could be heard further than that of any speaker who had preeded him with the possible exception of Richmond P. Holson. He said:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: We do not expect here that stupid peace which smell of chiloreform, We do not wish that unctious unanimity which springs from the unconflicting emotions of a solitary man. We would not have our harmony in a slogle harness. We, too, love the stir of a strenuousness for all and special strenuousness for all and special strenuousness for none. We do not derive our power from the seats of the mighty, but from the souls of the hunghly, but from the souls of the hunghly had for the hunghly but from the souls of the hunghly had been a candidate. We were not sont here by the candidate to notify the people. Our adversaries, by dwelling tenderly on the simplicity of the lamented McKinley, managed to endure for three days the strenuousity of Roosevell, By recounting in affectionate terms the achievements of the one they avoked an enthusiasm which thy immediately credited to the other. Through hears that were shed for the noble dead they saw a larger outline of the living. Driven by Iash and lured by luck they called on all the sacred dust to keep their spirits up. Set to run for three full days the pendulum petered out, the hands stuck fast and only a strenuous shake could make the wheels go round. Spiritless in the sullen task they worked uphill the grain and gravity of the hour. Without the master whom they had learned to love they lingered listless under the whap of once whome of the dead and all that is left is a horseman on the stopes of San Jum. Remove

The Old and Honored Way.

The Astute New York Politician, Who Has, Under Hill, Managed the Parker

out of breath toward the open grave. The old and honored way is still the best; be not so strenuous as to strain, yourself, nor yet so simple as to fall asleep. There is much said by those who sit on cushineed chairs about cowards and weakings in the nation's life. The sunburnt farmer is just as brave as the star-crowned solder. The man of natural peace is here a tulificial war is here once. Somehow of late the atmosphere of our national life is filled with a spray of blood; somehow the march of progress sounds of hanmered steel; somehow, although the sunlight of peace is all about us, there is now and then the gleam of bayonets in its radiant fire and a flash of swords as in its silver beams; somehow, although the Constitution is still in force, there is a sense of falling power and growing disrespect, which makes us feel that the venerable old man, so to speak, is halt and bilnd with years, and burdens the structure tremble and all the country pausees and listens and then returns to welcomes us, it does so with a malled hand; somehow, although the riture welcomes us, it does so with a malled hand; somehow, although the riture welcomes us, it does so with a malled hand; somehow, although the riture semble which makes the structure tremble and all the country pausees and listens and then returns to welcomes us, it does so with a malled hand; somehow, although you cannot put your finger on the cause, there is a universal fear; the mother watching while her children sleep, now an all the trans to see the field of this doubt and the size, it has an object, and sturing in the darkness of a dream sine sees the "right upturned face." The tolier, turning all his the and sines to doubt that the government is just. The man of means, who puts it out in the active currents of the tide and sees the peril of this doubt and the governments compromise with both, begins to feel that it is better hearded than employed.

A Lurking Cause. out of breath toward the open grave. The old and honored way is still the governments compromise with own begins to feel that it is better hearded than employed.

A Lurking Cause.

A Lurking Cause.

"The North and South each wearing sears that tell of war, almost foreiven and forgot, feel the fear again that a problem which only time can settle right, will be forced upon them wonstarted dreams and vague missivings is many a hidden cause. But over them is one at least rowealed, for Lincoln said in the sadness of his greatened, with the sadness of his greatened, with the sadness of his greatened, with faith the right as God gives us the wisdom to see it. And Roosevolt said in the softly and carry a big stick.

"And between these beginning and the end of Republican growth in time and temper, is all their wid, descending flight. With all they know and feel of the country's question of their course, the Republican party yet claim every fruit of soil and san, of brain and soul. They say that by a wise administration of nature's laws they hought abundant harvest from the soil. They say that by a wise administration of nature's laws they hought abundant harvest from the soil. They say that by a wise administration of nature's laws they hought abundant harvest from the soil. They say that by a wise administration of nature's laws they hought abundant harvest from the soil. They say that by a wise administration of nature's laws they hought a belief of the course of nature's laws they have been some their control, has lifted loads of labor from manched when and they padded untold with the problem and they padded untold with the control of the late of the control of the padded untold with the padded to the characters of the control in the problem in the problem and the now almost every one is willing to be educated. They say that while population wis increasing some there was never any steady, and and there was never any steady, and and the problem and the problems do in administering the government that turns out bid, they chart the them

New York United.

New York United.

The speaker continued amid great applause, declaring that the Democracy of the United States had assembled, beyond exciting pussions, to reason together for the well being of the country and the party. No man could have his exact way; no faction divide. All must work to the common good. The State of New York, he declared, came united upon one who will bring peace into the national council, patriotism and power into the campaign, and success to the context, deepled dissension in the delegation and cited records. Then he continued as follows:

denied dissension in the delegation and cited records. Then he continued as follows:

Therefore, I repeat, that this is the unanimous voice of New York inviting the country to consider the fitness, ability and availability of our cardinals. The country that the country to consider the fitness, ability and availability of our cardinals. The country, anxious it work answers with a man who cardinals who carded the Biate by 50,000 mulority. The country called upon New York is the batter of the base of the brain and ble dand how york the sawers with a man who carded the work of the brain and ble dand honor in the State. The country called upon New York for a Pemocration of the brain of the brain distribution of the bench—a man distribution of the passent of the bench—a man distribution of the passent of the bench—a man distribution of the passent of the passent of the passent of the passent of th high overhead, tramped around the hail again and again, cheoring trensledly. American flags appeared and tossed flaming bits of color into the scene.

Breaks Forth Again.

After the excitement had continued about twolve minutes, there was a perceptible abatement and the band struck up "America." thousands of voices joining in the song. The luil speedily passed away, for the hand started "Dixle," and with a spasmoue yell, the applause started all over agin.

Rising and falling in a huge, overwhelming wave of sound, the demonstration was kept up. Coatless, often collariess, the perspiring enthusiasts marched, waved and shouted, while the band and gallery crowds did their best to swell the roar. During the playing of the band a huge bust picture of Parker was carried up the center alsie. Just as it reached the platform two young indies, the Misnes Adole and Evaline Haywood of St. Louis, dresed in white and carrying mammoth bouquets of roses and ferns, were assisted to the persiding officer's table, and the huge portrait was hold for a moment between them, face to the delegates, and the State banners which had formed the procession were held aloft and massed around it. Shouts of "Parker." "Parker." "Alton B. Parker," "Parker," "Alton B. Parker," "Parker," "Alton B. Parker," "Parker," "Parker, and the platform and placed near New York's position in the hall. It was soon taken down, but just the instant i that the sovereignty of the party is in the untrammeled Judgment and wisdom of its members; if you ask me what his policy will be, if ejected, I tell you that it will be that policy which finds expres-sion in the platform of his party.

BOURKE COCHRAN AND F. E. MURPHY, OF KANSAS.

Appeals to South. Appeals to South.

With these as some of the claims upon your conscience and judgment, New York comes to you flushed with hope and prides were appeal to the South, whose unclouded vision and iron courage saw and fought the way for half a century; whose Jefferson swoke the dumb deflance of development jnto a voice that cried out to the world a curse upon the rule of kings and a blessing upon a juew born republic;

the way for half a century; whose Jefferson awake the dimb defiance of development into a voice that cried out to the world a curse upon the rule of kings and a blessing upon a jiew born republic; whose Madison translated the logic of events and the law of progress into the Constitution of the country; whose Jackson reclaimed the lost places of the far South fand democratelized the policies of the nation; and whose soldiers showed the iwondering world the finest fruits of brain and heart that ripen in her imperate sun, and who, through all the sons she lost, and all the sons she saved and all the tenns she lost, and all the sons she saved and all the tenns she saved and all the tenns she saved and all the tenns of war-and through all the patient loyalty and labor of after years so wrough for human happiness that all the word exclaims liver greatness in peace is greater than her valor in war. We appeat to you of the old South and the new to Join with us in this context for the supremacy of our party. We appeat to you of the old South and the new to Join with us in this context for the supremacy of our party. We appeal to the West, whose frontier struggles carried our civilization to the Paulin and forest, and whose faithful the paulin and forest, and whose faithful the paulin and forest, and whose faithful though leight long, years accountwersay you turn and follow whose were propeal to you as he did follow your expension to the pauling reaches the faithful senting and the pauling of the pauling senting the pauling of the pauling of the pauling of the pauling and forest the strife and anger of the older, other days; abandon all the grudge and rancor of party discontent from except where to forest the strife and anger of the older, other days; abandon all the grudge and rancor of party discontent for the past forest the strife and anger of the older, other days; abandon all the grudge and rancor of party discontent and peace—here and now resolve to make the future from the hought of our examples of the human brai

A FRENZIED MOB.

Tumultuous Scene in the Convention-Carmack's Second, -

ST. LOUIS. MO., July 8.—Mr. Littleton was given close attention. For the first time during the session there was silence in the half and his fine voice suppressed the flend in the gallery with his cry of Carmack Seconds Nomination.

Carmack Seconds Nomination.

"Arkansas." shouted the clerk, proceeding with the call of the States at the chair side direction.

"Arkansas yields to Tennessee." answered the chairman of the delegation.

Senator Carmack, of that State, was recognized, and at once took the platform and began a speech in second of the nomination of Judge Parker.

Senator Carmack had spoken but a few words when "Hurrah for Henrat" was hurled at him from the balcony, the remark being greeted by cheers and some hisses. The, great body of the convention disapproved with energy. Senator Carmack's voice did not fill the hall to the satisfaction of the galleries, and he was interrupted repeatedly by cries of "louder." It became apparent that much of the disturbance was caused by the enthusiasts in the galleries. One shouter who had started a disturbance was ejected from the hall by an officer. Senator Carmack concluded his speech at 1015.

The galleries setzed the opportunity for a shout, and disturbance reigned for some minutes, while Chairman Clark pounded with his gavet for order.

What He Said.

In his speech Mr. Carmack referred to some of the criticisms heaped upon Judge

In his speech Mr. Carmack referred to

What He Said.

In his speech Mr. Carmack referred to some of the criticisms heaped upon Judge Parker and scouted them. The fact that he is being supported by rich men was made the occasion for the statewent that the Democratic party is a party for the rich and the poor alike.

Mr. Carmack referred to some of the criticisms heaped upon Judge Parker and scouted them. The fact that he being supported by rich men was provided by the result of the rich and the poor alike.

Mr. Carmack referred to some of the criticisms heaped upon Judge Parker and scouted them. The fact that he are provided by the result of the resu

..A.. Popular Drug Store

must be one in which every effort is made to please the customer. This has always been our constant aim and endeavor. Children receive the hume courtebus treatment accorded old people-have made our stores immensely popular. We can save you money on everything you buy in the drug line.

'CUT RIGHT' PRICES

Bring us Your Prescriptions

Polk Miller Brug Gempany Oik Miller - Childrey Co.

character will be in vivid contrast with the recklessmess, the lawlessness, the enlighte and convulsive arrenuosity of this administration. We believe that we have such a man in the distinguished jurist from New York. * • Choose this men for your leader and the lans of Demogracy will throng to bis standard filled with the hope and the inspiration of victory, assured that the party which follows his standers banner will gover know dishonor and never tasts of defeat. Gantiemen of the convention, in the name of the Andrew Juckson Leanocracy of Tennessee, I second the nomination of Allow B. Parker, of New York.

HEARST UPROAR.

Nominated by Delmas, Editor Gets Big Demonstration.

Gets Big Demonstration.

By Associated Press.

BT. LOUIS, MO. July 8.—The call of States proceeded.

"California." yelled the clerk.

"Mr. Chairman," responded Delegate Tarpey, "California recognizes as her spokesman E. M. Delmas.

"I recognize E. M. Delmas, of California," said the chairman, and a volley of cheers came from the audience, Mr. Bryan leading it by standing up and waving a small flag.

Delmas, Names, Hearst.

Delmas Names Hearst.

Mr. Delmas, who took the platform to speak for William R. Hearst, while not possessed of a voice of the strong earrying qualities of Mr. Littleton's, could easily make himself heard by the majority of the people in the hall. Of greater age than Littleton he is not unlike in figure, possessing a strong compact form, bordering somewhat on the corpulent. He spoke calmly and enunciated clearly. His mention of the gentleman from Nebraska called forth an enthusiastic tribute. Mr. Delmas declared at considerable length that Mr. Hearst was the ideal Democrat and the ideal man for the nomines for President. He said Mr. Hearst was the ideal Democrat and the ideal man for the nomines for President. He said Mr. Hearst record showed him to be this and he appealed to the South for support, saying that his candidate on his maternal side was from Virginia and that some blood that flows through the velnas of the Southern people courses through his. Mr. Delmar continued to the effect that the great issue of the campaign to come is not the money question, the tariff questin or the question of expansion or imperialism. The issue is whether the government shall be carried on for the benefit of the people and of the whole people, or whether it shall be manipulated for the benefit of a privileged class. Upon this issue Mr. Hearst's stitude was well known. Mr. Delmar shall.

Unswerving in his devotion to these principles, constant as the needle to the people. Delmas Names Hearst.

inged class. Upon this issue Mr. Hearst, attitude was well known. Mr. Delmi, said:

Unsworving in his devotion to these principles, constant as the needle to the pole in this purposs, he stands before the American people to-day. And as surely us, in spite of the opposition of the monarchical followers of Hamilton, as surely as in spite of the emitty of the United States bank, fame has inscribed upon the roll of the chefr magistrates of the republic, the names of Jefferson and of Jackson, so surely, in spite of the obstruction of syndicated capital, will it there may be surely in the control of the chefr magistrates of the republic, the names of Democracy, thou that in the end hast ever ruled the destined of mankind, speak it thou; from thy home there, where dwell the unnumbered hosts of labor, speak. Speak till the valleys and the plains shall ring arbitration; speak, till every mountain peak shall find a longue to proclaim, even to the uniformost confine of the republic, the name of the uncompression and wrong many fight and under foot, builds his summers due to most limit, even to the atterness of ide conservation of the reduction of the champion of the rights of tool, the foremost limited their lives upon the blood-ratined fields of the revolution, the name of the champion of the rights of tool, the foot privilege and monopoly, the friend of-ell who labor and are heavy laden—the name of the revolution, the name of the revolution of the right of the revolution of the revolution of the revolution of the revolution.

Mr. Delmus's address, which closed with the name, will liam Randolph Hearts.

enthusiastic, were much less in volume than those following the mention of Parker's name. A seven foot portrait of Hearst was taken to the platform. Another of similar size was axi-pd in the gallery back of the platform, while numerous smaller portraits were shown on long poles raised from among the delegations.

The parade around the hall, which had been carried on during the preceding deponstration, was quickly undertaken. California leading off, and Arizona, Nevada. South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming joining in. The hanner of the Illines delegation was carried into this line, but the majority of that delegation did not follow it. The galleries joined lustily in the Hearst applause, making, perhaps, a stronger demonstration than had been made for Parker.

In marching around the hall many of the Hearst enthusiasts stopped to shake hands with Mr. Bryan, who remained standing during the early part of the demonstration. After a severe fit of coughing, however, Mr. Bryan took his seat.

The band, nothing if not impartial.

seat.

The band, nothing if not impartial, played for Hearst "America" and followed it up with "Dixie" as it had done for Parker, and the result was the same, with the exception that the Hearst people did not attempt to sing.

Red Head Had to Duck.

Red Head Had to Duck.

A red-headed enthusiast the a gray suit was lifted up on the shoulders of several men to the left of the speaker's platform. He cheered wildly for Hearst, but was soon compelled to climb down, for his bright colored hair was too conspleuous a target for the multitude of paper wads that came at him from all sides. Water was thrown on him, and

(Continued on Third Page.)

GAY OCEAN VIEW

Sunday. $1.00 round trip, via C. & O. Two trains, $30 and 2 A. M. C. & O. passengers can remain at Ocean Ylew until 7:30 P. M.

SEABOARD AIR LINE SUNDAY EXCURSIONS TO PETERSBURG. 40 Cents for Round Trip.

Tickets good on all regular Sunday trains, beginning May 15, 1904.